

Open Letter

to

Ms. Sahra Wagenknecht (Die Linke)

and

Mr. Kevin Kühnert (Chairman JUSO)

Dear Ms. Wagenknecht,

Dear Mr. Kühnert,

Both of you indicate that you wish to change the unjust capitalistic, incorrectly called socialistic, economic system of the Federal Republic of Germany, so that all, annually by the people achieved goods and profits, be fairly distributed to all citizens. The huge discrepancy between rich and poor has by all means to be resolved – the common goal of all progressively-democratically oriented people is obviously your aim as well.

Change, however, also means the respect for our Basic Law, as long as the promised “New Constitution” is withheld from us. From this compellingly follows that you, as bearers of ideas have to unify majorities (People and Parliament) behind you. Only in that way are necessary changes of law to the good of all people possible. It is, however, very much to the disadvantage of the common cause, when you Ms. Wagenknecht, and your very often merely lamenting comrades, keep tearing each other apart.

Pursue further your path, where you should be doing what you can do best:

“make a wholehearted effort for a cause for which you personally stand, for what you say and convincingly argue”

It was that which Herbert Wehner, back then, at a sub-area-meeting (Winsen) demanded from his voters. This forceful statement of that great politician is burnt into my memory, because I, as a minor councillor, was sitting only two or three seats away from Wehner. If you, Ms. Wagenknecht, would take the above said to heart, you can gather new strength and add new enjoyment to political life. Already in the near future we will be needing a person to unite the progressive parties and their voters.

You, Mr. Kühnert, should consider, that the demands stated by you will generate fear in millions of people. Of what use is it, when your own voters have to fear that you will take away from them their garden gnomes after you have dispossessed the Quant family with their BMW company. With your non-substantiated theories lacking the backing of people and parliament, already a strong wind is blowing in your face coming from your own Social Democrat Party – your greatest opponents are at close proximity and they do not understand your thoughts anyway.

I would therefore like to very strongly ask of you to return to your great predecessors

In your own SPD , who already in their Godesberger Programme

Wisely, progressively and only too clearly expressed their insights

as a basis for change in democracy and economy,

Here a few excerpts:

“- Market economy in itself does not guarantee a just distribution of income and capital.”

“- Income and capital are unjustly distributed.”

“- Who, in large organizations of economy has at his disposal values going into millions and tens of thousands of employees, doesn't only keep up economy:

He exercises power over people;

The dependence of ordinary workers and white-collar workers reaches far beyond the economic material aspects.”

If I may, I would like to call to your attention my book:

We are the People

- RUPTURE of the DISCREPANCY between POOR and RICH

A disputation in writing

There I demonstrate how “Real Democracy“ as a basis for a new kind of socialism may look like, in which

Capitalism and Work Force

sitting at one table can make decisions on a basis of equal rights together for all economic matters, and share the profits of their companies 50% to 50% at the end of the year.

The terms employer and employee will then no longer exist – they are a thing of the past!

On the path to an adapted “Democratic Socialism” not one drop of blood will be shed – if capital and work force will come to terms.

I would very much like to invite you, Ms. Wagenknecht and Mr. Kühnert, to the Island of Sylt as moderators, as soon as my book is completed and I will present it in the course of a reading with the title:

“IDEAL LEADERS”

or

“TWO-STREAM-SOCIALISM”

The “Friendly Revolution” of the small population of the GDR of 1989 lives on ...

A fictitious written dispute

Westerland/Island of Sylt, 13th of May, with kind regards ... Helmar Neubacher/

www.schaduf-book.de